

“

Foresight exercises should be required for everyone.

They help us break the habit of expecting things to stay the same, and they give us a valuable tool for making strategic decisions.

”

DR. MICHAEL JUSTASON

Director, W Booth School of Engineering Practice and Technology

McMaster University

Dr. MICHAEL JUSTASON

Director, W Booth School of Engineering Practice & Technology

McMaster University

Dr. Michael Justason is an Associate Professor and Director of the W Booth School in the Faculty of Engineering at McMaster.

Michael teaches courses in geotechnical engineering and engineering economics.

He has a Bachelor's in Civil Engineering and Management, a Master's in Earthquake Engineering, and an executive-MBA.

Michael spent 18-years at Bermingham Construction in Hamilton, and has worked in over 40 countries.

Michael is an award-winning teacher, having won the President's Award for Outstanding Contributions to Teaching and the Students' Union Award of Distinction.

Michael is a Fellow of the Canadian Society for Civil Engineering and CEO of the start-up company, LightBoard Depot.

AGILITY IN THE 21ST CENTURY CONFERENCE

Presented in Partnership with >abd.works_

- WEEK OF THE FUTURES -

October 23, 2026

