Overnight successes take a long time to build and require a vision beyond the next fiscal year.

Foresight helps us look beyond immediate pressures, develop signals around longer-term risks, and identify opportunities to create value differently. The challenge is building the muscle to have those difficult conversations and imagine what could be possible. ”

KEITH TAYLOR

Executive Director, DUCA Impact Lab
DUCA Credit Union

Keith Taylor leads the DUCA Impact Lab, a social finance innovation hub founded by DUCA Credit Union.

The Impact Lab works as a platform for Canadian Credit Unions to leverage emerging technology and community-based insights to build banking models that benefit all members of the community.

During his career at DUCA, he has led the development of Canada's first social purpose mortgage product, the emergence of DUCA as Toronto's first living wage employer, and the certification of DUCA as the first B-Corp Credit Union in the world.

Prior to DUCA, Keith worked as a strategic advisor to a group of companies accounting for over $500 million of community investment annually and has led community innovation in several contexts in Canada and internationally.

Keith is a League of Intrapreneurs Global Fellow and holds an MBA from the Schulich School of Business at York University and a BA from Saint Francis Xavier University.
